zvoove Appoints Dr. Ulrich Bannmüller as New Chief Financial Officer

Munich/ Germany, April 1, 2025 - zvoove, the market leading software provider for the temporary staffing, private security, and cleaning industries, today announced the appointment of Dr. Ulrich Bannmüller as its new Chief Financial Officer, effective immediately. Ulrich brings over two decades of extensive financial leadership experience in the technology sector, with a proven track record of driving growth and operational excellence.

"We are thrilled to welcome Uli to our executive team at this pivotal time in our company's global growth journey," said Oliver Muhr, CEO at zvoove. "His exceptional background in managing international financial operations and his experience in scaling leading software companies make him the ideal leader to help steer our financial value creation strategy as we continue to expand our market presence in and outside of Europe organically and via further M&A."

Prior to joining zvoove, Ulrich served as Managing Director, Group CFO and interim CEO at SKAYLINK GmbH for four years, where he played an instrumental role in integrating seven companies to develop a unified enterprise cloud service offering. Prior to that, Ulrich acted for ten years as CFO of Barkawi Holding GmbH, a tech driven supply chain, logistics and after sales service group, to support an ambitious growth path. During his tenure, both at Skylink and at Barkawi, Ulrich successfully led the consolidation of financial planning, controlling, accounting, incentive schemes and other key functions, while also heading performance change and workflow programs that delivered significant EBITDA improvements. Initially, Ulrich started his career as financial consultant and co-founder of an Internet platform.

In his new role at zvoove, Ulrich will oversee all financial, legal and compliance functions for zvoove, including financial planning and analysis, accounting, tax, treasury, and investor relations.

"I am excited to join zvoove at such an important stage in the company's development," said Ulrich Bannmüller. "I look forward to working with the talented team to build upon the strong foundation already in place and to help drive financial growth and operational efficiency further. Together with the executive team we have the great opportunity to build the next private equity backed global software champion."

Ulrich Bannmüller holds a PhD in business administration from Leipzig Graduate School of Management (HHL) in Germany.
